The Royal Canadian Mounted Police released a statement Thursday saying they received a request from B.A.T.N.U.C.C. on behalf of Peter Tardif for an early release.. Tardif was charged over the Aug. 13, 1993 incident as police were investigating allegations of child sex abuse made by the girl's uncle. Tardif, who had been married to the child's mother at the time, had been placed on administrative leave for the trial.. "The release order will be effective immediately and a warrant may be issued to remove Mr. Tardif from custody until July 28, 2015," police said in the statement.
